For the Sentinel.

Freedman's Code.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I propose a continuation of "Senex" upon the report of the committee, and ask of you as early an insertion in the columns of your very valuable journal, as may be consistent with your other obligations, for the subject is one fraught with serious evil, to the North as well as the South; in truth I look upon it (although not so intended) as a kind of a Trojan horse, which will prove any thing else than a welcome present, not only to the radical majority in Congress, whose bitter feelings to the South, seem to call for further humiliation, but likewise to the slave States themselves.

But to resume the subject—as to the constitutional meaning of the term "citizen" which the committee propose, unqualifiedly to confer upon the "freedmen" of this State: I will first call attention to the contents of this "Trojan Horse," to the consequences likely to result from its admission. The constitution of the United States declares that "the citizens of each State shall have the same privileges, immunities, &c., as the citizens of the several States;" and if you now confer "citizenship" you will be seemingly estopped from denying they are such; I have used the word seemingly, for I deny you have just power.

What then may, and likely will be the consequences of such an extension? Do you not perceive that such a recognition of political rights, as implied by the term "citizen," would preclude the State entirely from the enactments of such police regulations as the safety of the community might, at no distant day, require.

All nations have exercised the right of exclusion, in degrees more or less stringent, and it is not only unquestionable but it is founded upon the great principle of self-preservation, the first right of organized society.

China excludes wholly; France excludes all who do not obtain a passport from the government, and with us in North Carolina, we have the unquestionable right to exclude strangers or foreigners from admission among us.

Now I admit that this right is denied to us, and would be a violation of the Federal constitution, guaranteeing equal privileges, &c., if a "free negro" or "freedman" was a "citizen" within the meaning of that instrument.

Think you for one moment, if you make this concession to fanaticism, (for I look upon it in no other light) that it will be long before you are called upon by the "radicals" in Congress to give other proofs of your "loyalty?"

Lay not this flattering unction to your soul; plant your foot upon the Federal Constitution as your foundation and corner stone, and demand of them if they wish the further elevation of the "Freedmen" to all the rights of "egress and ingress" now enjoyed by the free citizens of the United States, that they must change that instrument, for it has been again and again decided, that neither "free blacks" or Indians were "citizens" within the meaning of the term as used in the constitution.

Chief Justice Baggett, and known to the profession for several years as Chief Justice of Connecticut; in giving his opinion, which may be found in the 10th. volumne of Connecticut reports page 347, uses the following language. "To my mind, (says Judge Daggett,) it would be a perversion of terms, to say that slaves, "free blacks" or Indians were citizens, within the meaning of that term, as used in the constitution.

God forbid; that I should add to the degradation of this class of men; but I am bound by my duty to say; they are not citizens." Again the naturalization laws of Congress, passed in obedience, to the requirements of the constitution, have always carried through the same distinction. They provide that any alien, being a white person, may be admitted, to become a citizen of the United States; thus excluding blacks, from citizenship by naturalization.

Now whether this was right or wrong in our forefathers is not now, the question; they doubtless felt, as the writer of this article feels, and as Chancellor Kent (who for many years, was at the head of the courts of New York) has expressed himself. The "African race (says the Chancellor) are essentially a degraded caste of inferior rank, and condition in society" and such have they ever been considered, and even now regarded in the non-slave-holding States.

Connecticut passed a law in 1833, directing that any colored person coming there to be instructed should be removed.

Ohio in 1807, prohibited a "Free Negro" from settling in that State, unless he gave a bond of $500 for good behavior; and that he should not become "a pauper"

Indiana in 1838, and Michigan in 1827, adopted the same policy.

In 1848 New York by a large majority of votes, refused to confer upon "Free Negroes" the elective franchise. Now these distinctions go clearly to establish my position that the term "citizen" was only intended to apply, to our republican freemen.

What kind of a "citizen" would the committee recommend? Certainly not one who has the privilege of exercising the elective franchise, or the qualification, which would enable him to vote for rulers, and to purchase and hold real estate.

Beside this I know of no other kind of "citizen," as known whether to the Federal or State governments.

Again, suppose by Legislative enactment, you declare him to be a citizen as recommended by the committee does that make him so!

Does the calling of a sheep's tail a sheep's leg make it one?

SENEX.

Mrs. Emma Hardinge, better known as "Belle Boyd," who recently gave to the public two volumes of adventures in the Confederate and Federal States, in the prisons and in the camps of both sections, now announces herself as "the celebrated extemporaneous lecturer," in St. James' Hall, in London.

The President has declined to communicate to Congress the accusations made against Jefferson Davis, Mallory and others, because they are ex parte, and only designed for the use of the President. The Attorney-General and Secretary of War concur in this opinion.

The Postmaster at Deep Well, Iredell Co., requests us to state that mail matter for Deep Well, should be sent via China Grove, on the North Carolina Railroad.—Statesville News.

For the Sentinel.

The Union Men.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I am neither unfriendly nor an enemy to any sound, consistent Union man, who was really so before the war, or during the war, or since the war. I do not ask what a man has been or done, provided he has done no dishonorable act. If he be an honest, worthy man now, and is a consistent Union man now, I esteem him as such. But I despise toadyism and hypocritical cant, as I do the frequent attempts of portions of our press, to depreciate many of our best men, by attempting to elevate others, no better, if as deserving.

Quite a number of us voted for Mr. Pool for U. S. Senator, purely because we thought him to be a good Union man now, without regard to the past, and for the purpose of reconciling differences among us, but none of us believed him to be a better Union man than Gov. Graham, or Mr. Turner, or Mr. Fuller, or Mr. Clark, or others elected to Congress.

Now the Standard and Progress know Mr. Pool's history as well as they do others, to whom they are fond of applying epithets which belong fully as much to themselves and Mr. Pool, as to any to whom they apply them.

The Standard and Progress have both endorsed the following remarks of Mr. Doolittle in the U. S. Senate, in regard to Hon. John Pool, and he has been held up as specially deserving the approval of Congress because of his Unionism, with the evident design of showing him off as a better Union man than others?

"Mr. Doolittle presented the credentials of John Pool, Senator elect from North Carolina. In doing so, Mr. Doolittle stated that he owed it to the Senate as well as to himself to state that Mr. Pool was, and always had been a devoted friend of the Union; that he was the Union candidate for governor of the State in 1860, before there was any immediate danger of secession. He canvassed the State and opposed secession by every means in his power to the very last. After the ordinance of secession had passed, he retired to private life, and refused to take any part in political affairs until the peace movement commenced in North Carolina, in which he took an active part, and did all in his power to embarrass the rebel authorities."

It is true Mr. Pool was a Union man in 1860, when he run for Governor against Gov. Ellis. And then the Standard and Progress opposed him. But was Mr. Pool a Union man when he run on the electoral ticket of Jefferson Davis in 1861? Was he a Union man when he was anxious to be made a Brigadier General in the Confederate army? Was he a Union man when he took the oath as a legislator in 1864, to support the constitution, and then did "all in his power to embarrass the rebel authorities?" Where is the evidence of his superior Unionism?

A UNION MAN.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the

The North Carolina Presbyterian

will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains or expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chief est aim In this we need assistance. We are not, alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on earth,

Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,

OR

BONE MANURE.

WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs B H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E F Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years. It has given unive sal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, as the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing.

"Very respectfully,

B. H. ALLEN & CO.,

"No. 191 Water street, New York."

PROSPECTUS

COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to

Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon a sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party, or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	35 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued after the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

Rules of Evidence.

Human laws are based upon the Divine law of right, truth and justice. They necessarily partake of infirmity and imperfection because they are human. Yet it is wise and necessary, that every proper effort should be made to eviscerate them of all defects and to approach as near to the Divine as possible.

The object of all law unless perverted, is to arrive at truth and to administer justice. These two elements lie at the foundation of all good government, and are essential to the peace and happiness of society. Just in proportion as society is devoid of them, the object of law is defeated. The conscience of mankind everywhere admits this. Hence, among all enlightened nations, to secure this end, even though they may be immoral and perverse, the seats of justice are held to be the sacred deposites of truth and right, and the authority of law is clothed with the most solemn sanctions.

How are we, nevertheless, to arrive at the truth, in order to the dispensation of justice?—In the jurisprudence of all nations who recognize the sacredness of law, there are certain rules of evidence, by which testimony or truth is to be detected or weighed. In this country, these rules have been confined to those which have governed for centuries, and which have always evinced little confidence in mankind, and seem to have taken it for granted, that human nature is so perverse, it can never rise above the innate selfishness of our being.

In England, a wiser and we think safer course has been adopted in late years, admitting as witnesses in Courts of Justice the largest license for the ascertainment of truth, allowing both plaintiff and defendant to testify. We are glad to perceive that this has been brought to the attention of the General Assembly. It is highly important, if not absolutely necessary, that this proposed change in the admission of evidence, should now be introduced in North Carolina.

In the new phases of society introduced by the abolition of slavery, and the probable admission of colored freemen to the privilege of testifying in all matters where they are concerned, this new feature of admitting plaintiff and defendant both to testify, assumes more importance and becomes more desirable. Nor do we perceive how the ends of truth and justice can be maintained, without admitting all parties concerned to testify before the Courts.

State Credit.

A friend writing to us on this subject a few days ago, says:

"We are glad to notice that your paper is pressing upon the Legislature the importance of providing for the interest upon the State debt. Unless the Legislature makes some provision during its present session, we look for a decline from even their present value, which is only about 82½ cts., say $425 for $1000, and with interest from July '61, which is now $1300, making in fact, a bond of $1300 for $825. Even if the State cannot provide for her coupons maturing July next, if she would determine to fund all interest to July next, and then say that she will begin to pay interest 1st January, 1867, and pass a tax bill to enable her to do so, her bonds would at once advance 90 to 95 cts., and the fact that the great bulk of her debt is owned by her own citizens, the tax levied would return to the coupon holders. Any act of the Legislature looking to the payment of her interest, will improve the credit of the State. If she only permits the back coupons to be funded into new bonds or Treasury notes at the pleasure of the holder, it will help them—and she certainly cannot refuse this—or if she will allow half the State taxes to be paid in her back coupons, it will create a demand for them.

Many of your citizens holding the State coupon bonds, for additional security, had them registered by the State Treasurer, by his endorsement on the bond, that it belonged to the holder, and was not transferable except by his signature, witnessed by the Treasurer. The holders, then, never expecting to be forced to sell them, now, in their poverty that they have to sell them and, in doing so, have to submit to a deduction of 15 to 20 per cent., to say: clean bonds worth in New York 82½ cents, these endorsed bonds will not bring 65 cents; this is a heavy loss, and falls of course, exclusively upon your citizens, as only they ever had their bonds so endorsed. The remedy is simple and complete.

Let the Legislature authorise the issue of new coupon bonds, payable in New York for all old endorsed or defaced bonds that may be returned to the Treasury and cancelled. This is a question of serious importance to your people—and we trust you will press it upon the Legislature."

The opinion of the writer in matters of finance are worthy of mature consideration. We agree with him that if State credit is worth any thing, now is the time to sustain it. If the present Legislature does nothing to preserve it, North Carolina bonds must rapidly decline.

The idea however, of the writer, that the State should provide for the payment of interest in money from July 1st, 1866, to July 1st, 1867, will be beyond the power of our people. He forgets that the Federal tax upon the people of the State for the present year, is at least $1,000,000—to this must be added $200,000 to meet State expenses, and that too, when there is not a million of dollars of greenbacks in the State, and little produce for exportation. We are in favor of any measure for sustaining the credit of the State, that our people can discharge without serious damage to their future efforts at recuperation and prosperity. Every thing that tends now to cripple them, only puts in jeopardy the principal as well as the interest of her debt.

The Banks—"Civis."

A writer over the signature of "Civis" in the Standard of yesterday, whom that paper says, is one of the ablest lawyers of the State, takes issue with the Committee on Banks and Banking, as to the conclusion at which it arrives, but as we understand him from a glance at his article, concedes the correctness of the premises of the report.

There is much force in what "Civis" says, touching the point of disagreement with the report, but how he so readily yields the assumptions of the report, and their legitimate sequences, we do not understand.

We are bound to determine the meaning of the President by the same rules of interpretation, that we bring to bear in all other similar cases. We judge what he says and what he does, by those general principles of action which he lays down, and not by isolated acts which may be shown to contradict or come in conflict with each other. The report in question, merely deals with the facts in the case, and "Civis" seems to follow and accept them, without, it seems to us, appealing to the principles laid down.

President Johnson bases his entire proceeding upon the Constitution of the United States. He claims to draw from that instrument, the foundation and justification of his entire procedure. Hence, he characterizes the course of the South, as a rebellion of a part and parcel of the same country and the same people against one common government. Hence he no where speaks of the Southern States as conquered States or conquered provinces, and no where either in what he says or does, applies to them that well known principle of international law, in reference to conquered countries in general. He treats the people as a conquered people, but the States as simply suspended in their powers. Civil government he declares to be at an end because superseded by the military, and not as a legal consequence of the rebellion. He no where declares all laws annulled, all government destroyed &c. He assumes no such powers. Hence he speaks of restoring the States. He says he has intended his action towards the Southern States to be advisory and not compulsory in their legislation.

This is the view taken every where in the North, by conservative men of all parties. Mr. Bancroft in his late eulogy upon Mr. Lincoln, reiterates the same sentiment:

"The States which would have left us are not brought back as conquered States, for then we should hold them only so long as that conquest could be maintained. They come to their rightful place under the Constitution as original, necessary and inseparable members of the State."

We repeat, if the doctrines of the report be correct, then secession was an accomplished fact—then all government, all laws, all civil and personal rights and obligations were abrogated, as a legal consequence of the revolution. And this is the doctrine of Sumner, &c.

Death of L. Q. Sharpe, Esq.

We regret to announce the death of L. Q. Sharpe, Esq., of Statesville, late member of the House of Commons from Iredell, and Solicitor elect of the 6th Judicial Circuit.—This we believe is the fourth member of the present Legislature who has died since the opening of its first session. A similar occurrence perhaps, has not before taken place in the history of the State.

Mr. Sharpe was a most valuable member and an excellent citizen. His health has been bad for months. How uncertain is life and by what a slight tenure are we held to it.

Rev. J. C. Sinclair.

The Fayetteville News says that this individual has been summoned before the "Reconstruction Committee" at Washington, to testify in regard to the status of our people. We join the News in entering our protest against the testimony of this class of men, who do not enjoy the confidence of their own churches or the people where they have been residing.

Congress.

The proceedings of this body are really of so little interest to readers generally in the South, they fail to excite much attention. Sumner and Wilson in the Senate and Stevens and Bingham in the House, manage to occupy most of the time upon reconstruction and the negro. As to amendments to the Constitution the Southern States are about done voting on them.

CHOLERA.—The Wilmington Dispatch is urging this subject upon the attention of the people of that place. Let the whole country prepare for it; but we would admonish all, not to invite it by unnecessary alarm. Cleanliness and sobriety, and carefulness in diet, will hurt nobody. Attend to these, but avoid excitement and alarm.

OUTSIDE.—We refer the reader to communications on the outside. We have on hand Col. Forebee's protest, a speech of John Berry, Esq., and several communications, which will appear as soon as we can get space.

MRS. BALL.—The testimony in the case of Mrs. Ball was closed on yesterday morning.—The Court will hear the arguments on Saturday. The testimony of Hendrick the principal witness against Mrs. Ball seems to have been invalidated by many witnesses.

A friend who has traveled lately, extensively, through the upper counties and a portion of South Carolina, informs us that the wheat crop is looking uncommonly promising.—Charlotte Times.

On the 24th of January, a very remarkable tornado visited the town of Newbern, in Georgia. It tore up trees by the roots, leveled houses to the ground, destroyed fences, and killed six persons.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Feb. 15th.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Journal of yesterday, was read and approved.

Mr. Wiggins, from the committee on Finance, to whom was referred a resolution on the subject of taxes, asking to be discharged from its further consideration, as the whole subject matter contained in the resolution has been considered in forming the revenue bill; also a bill to provide for the collection of taxes of 1865, in counties where no sheriff or other officers was qualified under the revenue ordinance of the Convention, reported in obedience to a resolution of the Senate, instructing the committee to report a bill upon the subject, and recommending its passage.

Mr. Howard, from the Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the bill to incorporate the Carolina Joint Stock Insurance & Trust Company, reported back the same, recommending its passage.

A bill to amend an act entitled an act for the better regulation of the town of Greenville, proposed to amend, with a recommendation that it do pass; bill for the relief of Landlords, recommend that it do pass; bill concerning indictments in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer, recommending its passage; bill to give original jurisdiction to the Supreme Court in certain cases, with a recommendation favorable to its passage.

Mr. Carter, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred the resolution to change the rules of evidence in this State, asked to be discharged from its further consideration, as printed copies of such a bill are now lying on the desks of the members, having been introduced in the House of Commons.

Mr. Gash, from the joint select committee of conference, to whom was referred the resolution in reference to furnishing a copy of the revised code and other acts to the Clerks of Courts in their counties where they have not been furnished or have been destroyed, reported back the same, with a substitute thereof, and asked that it be adopted.

Mr. Gash introduced a resolution to print the acts of the secret session of 1864 and '65, which on motion of Mr. Ferebee, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The bill to regulate the terms of the Supreme Court and for other purposes, came up, was amended and passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Bynum, the vote by which the High Shoal Rail Road bill passed on yesterday, was reconsidered, and the amendment offered by Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, designating a proper gauge was stricken out, and the bill passed its final reading.

Mr. Cowles, from the joint select committee, to whom was referred the duty of removing the books and papers of the late Adjutant General's office to the room formerly occupied by the State Geologist, reported they had discharged their duties so far as removing those that remain, but numbers of important papers have been lost, and that they cannot suggest any method by which they can be replaced, and ask to be discharged from its further consideration.

The bill, to prevent the carrying of pistols in this State without a license, came up on its third reading and was rejected.

A message from the House transmitting additional names for Justices of the Peace for Anson county. Concurred in.

Mr. Jones, of Columbus, introduced a resolution proposing to raise a special committee of conference to inquire into the discrepancy of the resolution referring to artificial limbs. (It appears that from the foregoing resolution none can be furnished except to volunteers.) Adopted.

The bill authorizing the Wardens of the poor to seize and sell the property of those paupers who are admitted into the poor house, passed its third reading.

The bill to authorize certain Cherokee Indians to remain permanently in this State, passed its third reading.

The hour of twelve having arrived and the bill in favor of the Old Dominion trading company being the special order for that hour, its consideration was resumed. Mr. Speaker was of opinion that it was a private bill, but desired to hear the views of the Senate upon the subject. Messrs. Wilson, Carter and Bynum thought differently. The vote was taken and the Speaker's ruling was sustained. (The said bill was a private matter and required notice.)

Message from the House was received concurring in the amendment to incorporate the Macon Turnpike Company, also a bill to incorporate the High Shoal Rail Road Company, also a communication from the Governor, announcing the death of L. Q. Sharpe, Esq., Solicitor of the 6th Judicial Circuit.

Mr. McKoy introduced a resolution requiring the additional printing of 500 copies of the report of the Committee on the Freedmen's Code, and on his motion was laid on the table.

Message from the House proposing to go forthwith into the election of a Solicitor for the 6th Judicial Circuit. Not agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, Senate adjourned till to-morrow 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 12.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Mason.

The Journal of Saturday was read and approved.

Mr. Blythe, introduced a resolution instructing an inquiry by the Judiciary Committee as to whether the Attachment of law of 1861 is still in force, and if not, what further legislation is necessary for the protection of creditors. Adopted.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED.

Mr. Waugh, a resolution in favor of R. W. Best.

Mr. Baxter, a resolution in regard to Swamp Lands. (Propose to constitute the Literary Board, sole manager of these lands, with power to sell and transfer the same in the name of the State.) The resolution also exempts these lands from taxation. Referred.

Mr. Hamilton, a bill to assist owners of real estate in securing the titles therefor.

Mr. Scoggin, a bill to authorize Martin Walker, Sheriff of Rutherford county, to collect taxes in arrear.

Mr. Manly, from the Judiciary Committee reported back the bill in relation to negroes, Indians and persons of color, or of mixed blood, recommending its passage with amendments, as follows: 1st, Strike out in 9th section the words "against a white person" and insert the word "all" so that this part of the section will read "that persons of color shall be capable of bearing evidence in all controversies, &c." 2nd, To the amendment of the 15th section, 5th line, excepting from the general repeal of the 107th chapter Revised Code, sections 54, 55, 56, 57, 58 and 66, add the words "and these sections shall be so amended as to read "persons of color" instead of free negroes, in all cases where the latter words occur. 3rd, amend the caption by striking therefrom the word "Indians."

Mr. Jenkins, of Warren, presented a minority report from some committee, adverse to the passage of the bill, the 11th. section (allowing negroes to testify) being retained. This report was signed by Messrs. Jenkins, of Warren, Dargan and Gidney. On motion of Mr. Manly the bill and reports were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Murrill from the select committee to which was referred the memorial of Messrs. Brodnax and Wilkins, (setting forth injuries they had sustained, as owners of a ferry at Gaston by the grant made at the last session of the General Assembly, of the right of ferriage over Roanoke River, to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company) submitted a report stating that the memorialists had been paid the sum of $2,500 by the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company in satisfaction of damages they might sustain from the grant of the right of ferriage to said company. The committee asked a discharge from a further consideration of the memorial.

Mr. Paschall from the same committee submitted a minority report, a accompanied by "a bill to repeal an act authorizing the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company, to establish a ferry over Roanoke River at Gaston." The minority report was signed by Messrs. Paschall, Stilley and Blair.

The bill was placed on calendar.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The House resumed the unfinished business of yesterday viz: the bill regulating salaries and fees.

The question recurred on the amendment pending at the time of adjournment, proposed by Mr. Smith, of Hertford, to allow the Attorney General and Solicitors half the usual tax fees, in cases of acquittal. This amendment after discussion was rejected.

Mr. Hoke offered the following amendment which was adopted as an additional section. "Be it further enacted, that this act shall be in force from its passage, and the legal effect and operation shall not be controlled by the 35th. section.

The bill was amended, on motion of Mr. Smith of Hertford, by inserting a provision fixing the salary of State Librarian at $500, per annum.

On motion of Mr. McNair, the House reconsidered the amendment adopted on his motion on yesterday, striking out "$1,500" as the salary of the Chief Clerk of the Treasurer, and inserting "$1,000."

The question recurring on the motion to stirk out—leaving the salary as first reported $1,500.

Mr. Holderby said,

MR. SPEAKER:—While, as a member of this House, I am one among the youngest, yet, I have had probably more experience in the business of life than many who are here, and I say to you, sir, and to the other members of this body, that the cheapest employees I have ever had, were to those whom I paid the highest wages.

You may give the Clerk of the Treasury $1500 per annum, and then, sir, I have no hesitation in saying, that if his duties are faithfully performed, he is, all things, considered, the cheapest officer in the State. He is, sir, the confidential Clerk of the Treasurer. He is, therefore, necessarily the Custodian of all the Treasure of the State. He gives no security, but his principal gives a bond in the sum of $250,000 for the safe keeping of the funds, and for the faithful discharge of his other duties as Treasurer. This being the case, the Treasurer must not only have a man in whose honesty he thinks he may confide, but, sir, he must have one whose integrity is like Cæsar's wife, "above suspicion." Such is, I venture to assert, the character of the gentleman now employed as Clerk by our Treasurer.

On motion of Mr. Marler, the House reconsidered the vote by which on yesterday "$1,000" was stricken from the bill and "$3,000" inserted as the salary of the Governor.

The question now being upon striking out, the yeas and nays were ordered, on motion of Mr. Rayner.

The House voted as follows, refusing to strike out:

Messrs. Allison, Ashworth, Beasley, Blythe, Bonner, Bryson, Burgess, Caldwell, Carson, Coates, Craige, Crawford, Dalby, Davis of Carteret, Dickery, Farrow, Flythe, Garland, Hamilton, Hodnett, Hoke, Houston, Hutchison, Jenkins of Gaston, Jones, Kinney, Leigh, of Tyrrell, Manly, McGuire, McNair, Melson, Moore of Chatham, Moore of Martin, Nicks, Page, Palmer, Paschall, Rayner, Smith of Guilford, Stilley, Scoggin, Waugh.—42.

Messrs. Barnett, Baxter, Black, Blackmer, Blair, Burton, Campbell, Cameron, Candler, Chadwick, Cowan, Cox, Dargan, Davis of Halifax, Donnell, Dunn, Faircloth, Faison, Foster, Furr, Gaines, Gidney, Harper, Hawes, Henry, Holderby, Holmes, Horton, Hyman, Jenkins, of Granville, Jenkins, of Warren, Joyner, Judkins, Kenan, Lee, of Gates, Logan, Lucas, Luke, Lyon, Marler, McAden, McDonald, McEachen, McIntosh, Moore, of Alamance, Murphy, Murrill, Niven, Newsum, Potter, Rosebro, Shaw, Smith, of Columbus, Smith, of Cumberland, Smith, of Hertford, Teague, Thigpen, Thompson, Trull, Webb, Wheeler, Williams, Wilson, Yellowley, York.—65.

Mr Horton moved a reconsideration of the vote by which $1,000 had been stricken from the bill and $500 inserted as the salary of the Governor's Private Secretary. Not agreed to.

The bill as amended passed second reading. The rules were suspended and the bill was put on its third reading.

Mr. McAden moved to amend the bill by restoring the provision stricken out on yesterday, allowing the Governor a messenger with a salary of $500. Rejected. The bill then passed its third reading, and was ordered to be engrossed.

A message was received from His Excellency, the Governor, announcing the death of L. Q. Sharpe, Esq., Solicitor of the 6th Judicial Circuit. Transmitting to the Senate.

The following engrossed bill had its first reading and was referred viz: a bill to extend the time allowed to widows to enter their dissent to the last wills and testament of their husbands.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The House proceeded to consider the special order viz: a bill to authorize the reference of disputes, by consent of parties, to arbitrators.

Mr. Caldwell urged the passage of the bill.

Mr. Blythe moved to amend the bill by striking out of the first section of the bill, all after the words it shall be the duty of, and insert as follows: the courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions (a majority of the magistrates being present,) to appoint three discreet persons for each county in this State, who shall constitute a court consider and determine all matters of controversy which shall arise from the depreciation of Confederate currency, and shall have full power to try all causes, which may arise from contracts, or debts made during the war, and award to the parties the just and equitable amount in current funds.

Mr. Marler opposed the bill in toto. He regards it as utterly useless.

Mr. McDonald, hoped that the bill, should it pass, would be first amended by providing that the awards of the courts of arbitration should be settled in State or Confederate Treasury Notes.

Mr. Cameron thought the bill should be entitled "a bill to encourage litigation." He moved that the amendment lie on the table, but subsequently withdrew the motion at the request of Mr. Caldwell.

Mr. Caldwell thought the amendment was calculated to embarrass the bill and suggested the propriety of its withdrawal. The gentleman from Henderson (Mr. Blythe) could introduce it as an independent proposition.

Messrs. Dalby and Holderby were in favor of the pending bill in the absence of a better one.

Mr. Holderby said it had been remarked of the celebrated John Randolph, of Roanoke, that he was "a giant in tearing down, but a pigmy in building up." That the bill before us was intended to lessen, and he believed in its operations its effect would be to lessen litigation; therefore, if gentlemen could not or would not give us something better, he was in favor of its adoption, and hoped that the House would sustain it.

The amendment was withdrawn and the bill passed its second reading—yeas 63, nays 30.

On motion of Mr. McAden, a message was sent to the Senate proposing that the two Houses proceed forthwith to an election for solicitor of the 6th Judicial Circuit, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of L. Q. Sharpe Esq.

Mr. McAden nominated Genl. A. J. Dargan.
Mr. Jones nominated D. M. Furches.
Mr. Rosebro nominated W. P. Caldwell.

The Senate by message refused to concur in the proposition.

Mr. Harper (by leave) introduced a bill to amend the charter of the town of Lenoir in Caldwell county.

Leave of absence was granted Mr. Rayner for an indefinite period, important business demanding his attention for a few days.

The House then adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M., to-morrow.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

THE firm heretofore known as that of Baker, Cowper & Co. has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The duties devolving on one of the partners as Cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, and the removal of the other to Norfolk (his residence before the war) for the purpose of practicing law, have caused this dissolution. The business will be continued by Mr Pulaski Cowper and Mr James A. Moore late Teller of the Bank of Cape Fear, under the name and style of Cowper & Moore, who will settle up the business of Baker, Cowper & Co.

NOTICE.

I SHALL offer for sale, at public auction, on Tuesday, 27th of February next, the farm on which I now reside, situated partly in Nash, and partly in Edgecombe Counties N C. This farm contains nine hundred and seventy five acres, of which one-third is in a high state of cultivation and well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn and oats. The other portion is well timbered and peculiarly valuable on account of the growing demand for lumber in the vicinity.

I will sell, at the same time, my stock of all kinds, including Horses, Mules, Cows and Calves, Sheep, Sows and Pigs, and all of good breeds.

—ALSO—

five hundred barrels of Corn, a large quantity of Fodder and Shucks, farming Utensils of all kinds, Wagons and Carts, a fine collection of Carpenters' Tools, and about twenty thousand pounds of Pork already killed and salted.

All this property will be sold under the hammer of Mr. J. J. Alston, well known as an accomplished auctioneer.

This property is peculiarly valuable, from the fact that it is within easy access of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road, being only three miles from one station and six from another. Location remarkably healthy.

Terms made known on day of sale.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Friday, February 15, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

MURDER.—A negro named Eaton Mills, was brought up on the train from Henderson on Wednesday night, charged with killing a white man. He alledges it was in self defence. The white man's name we have not heard.

The Concert.

The Concert will be repeated to-night at the Institute for the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind. The price of admission will be 50 cents.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson delivered a lecture before the Library Association of Wilmington on Tuesday night last.

OUR CITIES.—Raleigh is a city, Newbern is a city, and we are in for making Wilmington a city. Its claims are certainly equal if not greater than some others.

Hogs, &c.—By a city ordinance hogs and goats are prohibited from running at large.

Trial of Mrs. Ball—Third Day.

The Court was called to order at 10 o'clock—all the members present, except Lieutenant Gardner.

The Judge Advocate explained, that the cause of Lieut. Gardner's absence was, his being ordered to New York.

The examination of witnesses for the defense was resumed.

Richard T. Saintsing sworn. I live in Warren county—am about twenty-two years old. I saw Jim the day before he was killed, and told him Mr. Rowland had the clothes. He said that Rowland was not the one that took the clothes; that Mrs. Ball took them, and that he would not go to Rowland for them, but would go to Mrs. Ball's next morning without he died—this was the night before the killing; about 8 o'clock; Mrs. Rall told me, some three or four days before the killing, at her house, that Jim had broken open her door—this was in Jim's presence. I have heard her tell him not to come there any more—when she told him so, Jim made no reply.

* * * * * * * *

CROSS EXAMINED.

The clothes were some Jim carried to Mrs. Ball's—don't know whose they were. Mrs. Ball took them—don't know why Jim broke in the house—the door was fastened inside with a sliding wood latch—I saw no marks of violence on the door next morning—the door could not be opened from out side—think it must be opened by knocking or shaking—it would take a very hard lick to break the latch. Jim did not say he had any right to go to Ball's, when I saw him the night before he was killed—he did not say he was sent there. Jim had been employed to work at Ball's—he was not working there then—don't know why he left.

* * * * * * * *

Richard Gibbs sworn. I reside in Warren county, am fifty-five years old. I heard a conversation between Jim Thomas and Frank Hendricks, at Sandy Hendrick's wood-shop, the day before Jim was killed. Frank inquired of Jim how he came out at Warrenton—Jim answered, very well. He then remarked that Jim Rowland had nothing to do with the clothes, when Frank told him he had better wait until that matter was looked into. After a minute or two, Jim said to Frank that Jim Rowland would get hell before many days—Frank stopped him again, and in a few minutes Jim left the shop. I know the character of Wm. P. Hendrick—it is bad—bad every way; especially for truth—I would not believe him under his oath. I know Mrs. Ball's character—I think it very good in the neighborhood for peace and quiet—know nothing to the contrary.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I understand the general character of a man to be the sentiment concerning him in the neighborhood. Wm. Hendrick was raised within a mile of my house—he was in the Confederate army about two years, he is about twenty-one years of age—his character has always been bad since he was big enough to be noticed and not merely since Jim was killed.

Wm. A. Quincy sworn. I reside in Warren county—am 54 years old. I have known Wm. D. Hendrick some eight or ten years—I know his general character—it is bad, from my knowledge of his character I would not believe him on oath. He has had a bad character from his boyhood. I was at Mrs. Ball's the day after Jim was killed—I saw signs of scuffling just at the shed door extending some eight or nine feet from the door—a person standing at the chimney could not see the place where the scuffling took place—to see it, one would have to go some fifteen feet or more from the chimney. The body of Jim lay some eight feet from where the scuffling had taken place and about the same distance from the corner of the house.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

I have heard the whole community speak of Wm. Hendrick's character, as well before as since this affair. I don't know at what age he went into the army—think he is nineteen or twenty years old—have no bad feelings toward him—I frequently employ his father to work for me.

Wm. H. Harris sworn. I live in Warren county, and am forty-two years old. I know Wm. D. Hendrick—have known him from childhood—I know his character—it is bad—I would not believe him on his oath.

George B. Harris sworn. I live in Granville county, and am thirty-nine years old. I know Wm. D. Hendrick from his cradle—I know his general character—it is bad—I could not believe him on his oath—he has had a bad character ever since I have known him. I was at Mrs. Ball's the day after Jim was killed—saw signs of a scuffle at the north door—a person at the chimney could not see the place where the scuffle took place—would have to go fifteen or twenty feet from the chimney to see it, as the corner of the shed would have prevented. I don't know that the marks in the yard were made by Mrs. Ball and Jim. I don't think there is any one in Granville or Warren county who has a worse character than Wm. Hendrick—his reputation before this affair was as bad as could be.

James T. Wiggins sworn. I live in Granville county and am thirty-six years old. I was at Mrs. Ball's the day Jim was killed—I saw where he lay, it was some fifteen feet from the north door—a gun lay across his arm, I think the left arm—I saw signs of scuffling some six or eight feet from the door—a person standing at the chimney could not see the place. I know Wm. Hendrick's character—it is very bad—I would not believe him upon his oath—this has been his character ever since he was of any size—a person must have been fifteen or twenty feet from the chimney to have seen the place of the scuffling.

CROSS EXAMINED.

The gun was not clasped in Jim's hand—one could have seen the body if standing six or eight feet from the chimney.

Richard Kearney sworn. I live in Warren county, and am twenty-seven years old. I know Hendrick's character for truth—it is bad, and has been all his life. I would not believe him on oath.

E. W. Wortham, sworn. I reside in Granville county, and am forty-five years old. I was at Mrs. Ball's the day Jim was killed—went there about 10 o'clock—there were several of the neighbors present. I saw where Jim lay—his gun was lying on his left arm—saw the evidence of a scuffle in the yard, six or eight feet from the north door—the ground was torn up as if by shoes—a person must have been some twenty feet east of the chimney to have seen the place.

Willis Harris, a colored man, sworn. I guarded Mrs. Ball's house for her two nights—I think it was between Christmas and the time Jim was killed—I guarded the house for fear Jim might come, and the children were away and Mr. Ball was having fits.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Jim did not come the nights I was there—I knew Jim—had heard of a quarrel between Mrs. Ball and him, but didn't hear the quarrel with my own ears—Mrs. Ball did not say what she was afraid Jim would do, except that she was afraid he would injure her or her things.

BY THE COURT.

Question. What did Mrs. Ball say she wanted you to do in case Jim did come?

Answer. She wanted me to help take care of her things if Jim did come there.

The Court then adjourned to meet again next day at 10 o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

"Widely Known." It is generally supposed that the Websters, Palmerstons, Gortschoffs, Metternichs, and Garibaldis of politics are the men of world-wide renown and so they are where newspapers circulate, but not much beyond. One of our friends lately returned from China, amuses us with the recital of his journey inland for some distance, where the enquiry oftenest made when he became known as an American, was whether he knew or had ever seen the great chemist of his country, Dr AYER, that made the medicines. They use his remedies—many of them have been cured by them—and they speak of him, as if he occupied the whole of America or were at least the great feature of it. A mandarin who had been cured of a malignant ulcer on the hip by his Sarsaparilla, seemed to consider it our principle article of export, and its inventor one of the few men this continent had ever produced worthy the attention of Chinamen.—New York News.

Real Estate Bank.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It is gratifying to see that you are so ably directing public attention to the necessities of our suffering community, by the establishment of a National Bank, of proportions not only sufficient to give relief to the State in its crippled finances, but also relief to the people.

The plan proposed is not only practicable, but can be rendered one of the safest of all organizations for similar purposes. You have so fully expressed the idea in your leader of this morning, that it seems scarcely necessary to say more, but to await the action of the Legislature. It is acknowledged by all, that something must be done and done quickly. The public prostration is great, and the patient though paralized, is not dead but demands remedial measures without delay.

But some wise and good men think that it is injudicious to act now, that the uncertainties of our political future are too great, and that affairs, State and national, must become more settled.

Now sir, I would ask of all such, at what period in American history did the National Government present greater indications of permanency! There exists no foreign alliances.—Universal comity prevails with foreign powers, and there is nothing equivocal in the foreign policy of the government. Hence the exclusive attention of Northern politicians who now control Congress, is being directed towards the South very much to her annoyance. This is well calculated to stir up domestic strife and sectional animosities. But when we cast about for a remedy, we find that we have come out of this great civil war without ability to move a finger to redress our grievances, even though they may not be rather imaginary than real. We must of necessity submit to the national authorities, and conform our legislation and our business operations to the rules prescribed by the supreme government.

This may be done in organizing financial institutions with the greatest propriety, especially as it may be affirmed that no people have ever managed Banks more successfully than the people of the North; and the opinion is freely expressed North and South, that the present National Bank system is the best ever yet devised, and your plan of a National Bank for North Carolina, Mr. Editor, does not conflict in any particular with the law of Congress.

But some are under the impression, Mr. Editor, that your securities will not meet with favor in the money markets, and therefore, you cannot sell your bonds at par. You can very easily estimate the value of such an objection, and certainly would not be willing to accept it as a reason why enterprize of such momentous importance should be given up and abandoned without a trial. Do not intelligent men on the hand, from both the North and the South, say that such securities and endorsements as you propose will at once command the attention and confidence of capitalists, and a demand will spring up promptly for them in the money markets, not only of the United States, but Europe!

Indeed it may be questioned if a better and more solid security exists, and capitalists will appreciate it.

Viewed politically, it will be seen that the building up of such institutions, in such a way as this, links are being forged to the great cable that shall bind closer together, this great governmental fabric.

But, Mr. Editor, can an institution of this kind exist in the face of adverse legislation? Certainly not, and ought not, if it could. I suppose, however, that the act of incorporation bringing it into existence would simultaneously restrain its natural proclivities for excessive gain, and clothe it with functions for good.—It may be assumed, that a National Bank in North Carolina can be well and ably managed, as there remains in the State the same capable and upright men, who so successfully controlled her banking institutions, before the war. There are, doubtless, too, other gentlemen of ability whose services are available.

Your correspondent, Mr. Editor, can see no reason why your project should not receive immediate legislative sanction. Among other good results expected, the necessity would soon be obviated of encumbering statute books with stay laws, which will be found in their practical operation in constant conflict with the rights of home creditors, and in favor of non-resident creditors under judgments and decrees from Federal courts.

Better infuse vitality in the channels of trade and industry, and thus let the people be enabled to pay honest debts to honest home creditors; and give no protection to him who refuses to comply with his contracts.

The Lunatic Asylum.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I was very much pleased upon reading your article concerning this Institution, in your paper of the 12th, and your statement as to the manner in which Dr. Fisher had discharged his onerous and responsible duties as Superintendent and Physician to the Asylum.

I was gratified to learn, from your article, that the term for which Dr. Fisher has been elected, does "not expire until 1871," and that "his continuance in office would be confirmed by the Supreme Court, if anything should occur rendering it necessary for his rights to be tested," because it has been rumored about the State, that a Board of Directors for the Institution, had been elected for the sole purpose of depriving the unfortunate inmates of the Asylum, of the valuable services of Dr. Fisher, and substituting therefor, those of another without experience in such practice. Being personally acquainted with the management of the Asylum, by Dr. Fisher, and having served for four years as a Surgeon in the Confederate army, and having become officially acquainted with very many of the Medical officers, from all parts of the Confederacy, and particularly those from this State, I can can truly say, that I do not know one, however experienced in hospital practice and management, who could supply Dr. Fisher's place, without detriment to his unfortunate patients.

I do not intend by the above, to detract from, or depreciate in the slightest degree, the deservedly high reputation won by many of the Surgeons from this State, while in charge of General Hospital and in the field service. Dr. Fisher is peculiarly and eminently fitted for the position he occupies, and it would be an act of the greatest injustice and wrong to the poor unfortunate Lunatics to take him away from them, to say nothing of the disgrace which would accrue to the State, from such treatment of a most faithful, conscientious and devoted officer.

DAILY SENTINEL

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

Where are they?

Where are they with whom I started,
Traveling o'er life's joyful way;
Years have vanish'd since we parted,
I am here, but where are they?
O the hours that blissful blest us,
O the friends that once caress'd us,
Bosom friends that fondly press'd us,
Where are they?

As the early crystal dawning,
Heraids in a glorious day;
So was life's enrapturing morning,
Bright with Hope's delusive ray;
Scenes of Heav'nly brightness seeming—
Scenes with fadeless lustre gleaming,
Lit with smiles of Beauty beaming,
Where are they?

As the stars in clustering bands,
Sweetly smiling, smoothly roll;
So with clasped hearts and hands,
Full of bliss we sought the goal;
Pleasure's radiant sky was o'er us,
Hope on gilded pinions bore us,
Love in angel guise before us,
Woo'd the soul.

As the streamlet dancing by,
Joyful ever—ever sings;
As the christall'd evening sky,
Gems of beauty ever brings;
So the years in bright appearing
Ever glowing—ever cheering,
Wrapt our souls in love endearing,
Like the Spring.

They have gone whose hearts were lightest;
They to whom I fondly clung;
They whose bouyant hopes were brightest.
They who sweetest smil'd and sung;
Fairy forms in grief array'd,
Cheeks, where Beauty blushing play'd,
Eyes, where love his conquests made,
Hearts among.

Why, ah! why, this mournful feeling,
Why should tears embittering flow?
Tears in silent swiftness stealing,
Meet where flowers of glory grow?
There, I'll meet the bouyant hearted,
Those with whom in life I started—
Those from whom I weeping parted,
Long ago!

CAN A DRUNKEN WOMAN BE REFORMED.—The following story is decidedly good, as told by a man who formerly was an apprentice in Brooklyn:

Mr. Ludlow, their foreman, was a sober, quiet and industrious man, whose only failing was being frequently late to his work. Mr. James, the "boss," spoke to him about it, and wanted to know if he had any reason for not being at work promptly "on time." Mr. Ludlow, with much embarrassment, said yes, he had to remain at home to take care of his children until his wife had slept off the effects of drunkenness.

Mr. James made him promise the next time he found her in that state to let him know, and he would give her a fright that had cured many a man. A day or two after Ludlow came in, after going for his dinner, and told Mr. James that his wife was again lying drunk on the carpet at home. "All right," says James; "put it da long box into the wagon and come to your house." When they arrived there they placed the unconscious form of Mrs. Ludlow in the box, placed a couple of candles by the side of the temporary coffin, darkened the room and sent all the family away. Mr. J me blackened his face and took his place alongside of the coffin. After a time Mrs. Ludlow, having slept off much of the effects of the w isky, rose up in her coffin, and looking about, said to her companion, "Where am I?" "In h—ll." "How long have I been here?" "Two weeks." "How long have you been here?" "Three months."—Well, you have been here the longest, and are better acquainted, and know where they keep the best whisky, just take this quarter and get us a pint."

Morrow is a station on the Little Miami road, about forty miles from Cincinnati. A new brakeman on the road, who did'at know the names of the stations, was approached by a stranger the other day, while standing by his train at the depot, who inquired:

"Does this train go to Morrow, to-day?"

"No," said the brakeman, who thought the stranger was making game of him, "it goes to-day, yesterday, week after next."

"You don't understand me," persisted the stranger, "I want to go to Morrow."

"Well, why in thunder don't you wait till to-morrow then, and not come bothering around to-day? You can go to-morrow or any other day you please."

"Won't you answer a civil question civilly; Will this train go to-day to Morrow?"

"Not exactly. It will go to-day and come back to-morrow."

As the stranger who wanted to go to Morrow was about to leave in digust, another employee, who knew the station alluded to, came along and gave him the required information.

It well known that an auction of unmarried ladies used to take place annually in Babylon. "In every district there assembled on a certain day of every year all the virgins of marriageable age." The most beautiful was first put up, and the man who bid the largest sum of money gained possesion of her. The second in personal appearance followed, and the bidders gratified themselves with handsome wives, according to the depth of their purses. But, alas! it seems that there were in Babylon some ladies for whom no money was likely to be offered; yet these also were disposed of, so provident were the Babylonians. When all the beautiful ones were sold, the crier ordered the most deformed to stand up, and after he had openly demanded who would marry her for a small sum, she was at length adjudged to the man who would be satisfied with the least; and in this manner the money arising from the sale of the handsome served as a portion of those who were either of disagreeable looks, or had any imperfection.—This custom prevailed about five hundred years before Christ.

WANTS A GOOD ONE.—An odd bit of dialogue occurs in a novel now publishing in a French paper. "Where is your husband?" asks a gentleman. "He went out to buy a cigar," replies the lady. "Has he been gone long?" "Eighteen years." "He is quite right," remarks the gentleman, philosophically; "he wants to choose a good one."

"Oh, mother! do send for the doctor!" said a little boy of three years. "What for, my dear?" "Why, there's a gentleman in the parlor, who says he'll die if Jane don't marry him—and she says she won't."

If the Federal Constitution needs as many amendments as the Congressional tinkers seem to think, it might perhaps be well to follow the example of that other tinker who melted down the brass kettle for metal to stop the holes.

North Carolina Map for 1866.

THE Subscriber has, after ten years of toil and experience, prepared this new and beautiful map, from new engravings, with all the new Counties, Rail Roads, Post Offices, with hundreds of additions and corrections, State border views, likeness of President Johnson, Andrew Jackson, J. K. Polk, Govs. Swain, Graham, Vance, &c., altogether presenting a superb Map, worthy of the State and a place in every household, vastly superior to any thing in this line in finish and beauty.

This Map is entirely from new engravings, and is a great improvement on Cooke's & Pearce's old Map.

Beware of Northern humbugs and impositions.

The Map is now ready for printing.

Agents wanted in all parts of the State.

Editors who will copy and notice this advertisement, will be entitled to a proof copy of the Map, by sending paper to me.

Price of the Map, 5 feet by 4, handsomely painted and printed in the best style at the low price of $5 per copy. SAMUEL PEARCE,

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $3,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $50, or $100, or $200, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527 8 5 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155 2 4 33.

In Raleigh a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

COOKE'S HOTEL

Is open, and those who are travelling and wish comfortable quarters and good eating, stop at Cooke's. My terms will be as moderate as possible for the times. You will always find conveyance at the depot to take you to either of the Hotels in this City; but be sure to inquire for Cooke's, where you will get good lodging, good eating, mineral water to drink, and a pipe to smoke if you wish it.

I will be prepared to accommodate 15 or 20 members of the approaching Convention.

GEO. T. COOKE.

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

THE UNDERSIGNED RESPECTFULLY announce to the public that they have formed a copartnership for the purpose of carrying on the

in all its branches.

Each member of the firm is a practical printer, and, with an experience of twenty years each, they confidently appeal to the people of their native State for a liberal share of patronage.

They have one of the Largest Printing Establishments

in the State and execute their own work, which, for neatness and cheapness, cannot be excelled in the South

The senior member of the firm has been for a number of years superintendent of the Printing Office of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and dumb and the Blind which has always sustained a high reputation for neat and tasty printing.

They are prepared to execute, at short notice,
